

RESIDENTIAL OPPORTUNITIES

FOR PEOPLE WITH DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES THROUGH THE ARC, ONEIDA-LEWIS CHAPTER.

THE ARC, ONEIDA-LEWIS
RESIDENTIAL
Services

The Arc's Residential Program strives to create a quality of life based on meaningful opportunities and self-determined outcomes for people with Developmental and Intellectual Disabilities. Each person, along with family members and other interested parties, work together to develop a plan of services based on individual dreams, strengths and interests.

FEEL AT HOME.

Arc homes are located in several communities in Oneida and Lewis Counties. They can be found in quiet, rural settings or bustling city neighborhoods, in small quaint villages or sprawling suburbs. Housing options include homes ranging in size from four-person to ten-person. Many sites are entirely mobility-friendly.

Support and assistance is based on need and ranges from a few hours per week to 24-hours, on-site supervision.

SUPPORTS INCLUDE:

- Meal Planning and Prep
- Budgeting
- Maintaining Health & Wellness
- Acquiring the use of Community Resources
- Participation in Social & Community Activities

We recognize the potential of all people and treat every moment as a learning experience as we stay committed to providing the necessities and niceties of everyday living.
