Rotary Hosts Annual Holiday Party

Utica, NY – The Utica Rotary hosted their Annual Holiday Party for individuals served by The Arc, Oneida-Lewis Chapter, NYSARC on Friday, December 2nd at the MVCC College Center. Over 350 people enjoyed dinner, dancing and a special visit from Santa and his elf. Volunteers from Rotary, Arc staff and boards were on hand to assist MVCC staff in serving beverages, dinner and dessert.

Gail Miskowiec, Vice President of Operations for The Arc, said the Utica Rotary is an integral part of holiday traditions at the Arc, “The annual Rotary Holiday Party is the biggest party of the year and the individuals look forward to it all year long! Year after year, the Utica Rotary Club has stepped up to help kick off the holiday season by graciously donating their time and resources for this party.” Rotary has been hosting the party for individuals with developmental disabilities in our community for 40 years.
