Time

1st & 3rd Fridays
6:30 - 8:30 p.m.

Teen Time is a socialization and recreation program for tweens and teens with developmental disabilities and their peers. This program offers kids the opportunity to "hang out" with friends and join in activities and games of their choice with available support from trained staff. Teen Time will help to enhance friendship skills in fun and age appropriate settings.

Listening to music, playing board games and outings such as bowling, mini golf and movies will be offered. Cooking and movies will also be available.

Teen Time serves tweens and teens from 12-17 years old with developmental disabilities.

Reservations are required.
